

Communication Studies

The Department of Communication Studies is concerned with human interaction and communication in all its forms. The Communication Studies Department provides research, teaching and service to enable students to develop understanding and skills in order to thrive in a global communication environment of unremitting change and increasing diversity. To this end the department offers an undergraduate major in Communication Studies, and graduate courses leading to a Master of Arts in Communication Management.

To obtain specific admissions requirements on how to apply to Graduate School, prospective students should visit this page: <https://www.uab.edu/cas/communication/graduate-program>

Master of Arts in Communication Management

The program requires a total of 36 semester hours. Of the 36, no more than 6 hours can be CM 699 (Plan I), no more than 6 hours can be CM 698 (Plan II), and no more than 6 hours can be CM 618 (both Plan I and Plan II). 6 hours of additional coursework may be taken in lieu of a Plan II project. A grade of C in one course will result in program probation. A grade of C in a course the subsequent semester will result in dismissal from the program. A grade of C in two courses in the same semester will result in dismissal from the program, but you may apply for re-admittance into the program.

Additionally, it is recommended to take CM 601 in the first semester of completing either Plan I or Plan II as this is a foundational required course.

Accelerated Learning Opportunities

The Department of Communication Studies offers a Communication Management Master's (ABM) option for high-achieving undergraduate students. All CM Graduate classes may be used for undergraduate BA in Communication Studies through the ABM, excluding: CM 618, CM 675, CM 698, CM 699.

For more information on these programs, please view the Department of Communication Studies Graduate Program web page.
