Chair: Julian Arribas

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers multifaceted French and Spanish graduate-level courses which, in tandem with the offerings in the School of Education, address the diverse global and intellectual challenges facing future educators and citizens of the 21st century.

Whether at the undergraduate or at the graduate level, our programs are rooted in diversity within and across cultures. We foster the international exchange of knowledge and information between humanities scholars, teachers and other professionals. Our instructional methods are aligned with national standards. The foreign language experience at UAB includes classroom learning, scholarship and research, experiential learning, and extracurricular opportunities. We offer graduate students a unique opportunity to interact with scholars and engage as well with faculty dedicated to serving their profession. Our UAB Foreign Languages and Literatures faculty are engaged in their state and/or national professional teaching associations, serving on boards, organizing professional workshops, working every day to build connections and to enhance foreign language education opportunities in our state and beyond.

At the graduate level the UAB Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers courses in culture, civilization, cinema and culture studies, linguistics, and literature.

Foreign Language Graduate Studies

M.A. in Education (French/Spanish)

At UAB, the Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) program for the teaching of World Languages (French and Spanish) consists of two tracks —traditional and alternative. The traditional track is for prospective students who completed an undergraduate degree in French or Spanish education, who already hold certification for teaching French or Spanish, and who wish to earn advanced certification. The alternative track is for prospective students who have an undergraduate degree with a 2.75+ GPA from a regionally accredited college, have passed the ETS Core Academic Skills Exam and the Praxis in French or Spanish, and who wish to earn initial certification for teaching French or Spanish in grades PK-12.

Information sessions are offered on a weekly basis. Confirm your attendance by contacting Dr. Susan Spezzini (spezzini@uab.edu), Program Director for Secondary and K-12 programs. These information sessions take place as follows:

Alternative Master’s Mondays at 5:00 in EB 100

Traditional Master’s Thursdays at 4:00 in EB 100
