English Language Institute (ELI)

INTO UAB

At INTO UAB, international students join a supportive community committed to helping them integrate with ease into American university life while preparing for degree studies. Unique programs help improve academic and English language skills, and helpful faculty and staff ensure students adjust to life in the US. Students studying in the INTO UAB Center have all the benefits of campus life at an American university. Living and learning in the heart of UAB’s campus, international students develop friendships with American and international students and have access to all of the academic, social and cultural resources and activities at The University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Pathway Programs

INTO UAB offers academic Pathway programs designed to prepare students to progress with confidence to UAB undergraduate and graduate degree programs.

- Develop and deliver oral presentations

Understand the Pathway Program

INTO UAB’s Undergraduate Pathway program combines intensive language study, academic skills development and academic coursework in a program designed to move students successfully through the first year of their four-year degree program of study in the US.

- The Undergraduate Pathway program is for students who:
  - Want to study for an undergraduate degree in the US
  - Desire additional academic, language and cultural support in order to succeed during the first year at a US university
  - May need to improve English language skills
  - May have a lower GPA than required for direct admission to degree program
  - Meet any or all of the above criteria

In addition to intensive English instruction, Pathway students take core academic courses including math, science, writing and other courses required of all students, domestic and international. All Undergraduate Pathway courses are UAB credit-bearing courses. Undergraduate Pathway programs are available in the fall, spring and summer semesters. Some programs will require taking courses in the summer in order to complete the degree in four years. Programs such as engineering may require a fifth year to complete a bachelor’s degree.

Program Benefits

Pathway students receive the highest level of support during their transition abroad, making the program an ideal choice for international students who are driven to achieve high academic goals. Other benefits include:

- Guaranteed progression to a UAB degree program (upon successful completion of a Pathway program)
- Full integration with domestic and international students on the UAB campus
- Access to all UAB cultural events, athletic events and activities including UAB’s state-of-the-art recreation center
- Classrooms and accommodations in the heart of UAB’s compact and accessible campus with shopping, dining and other services located nearby
• Individual supplemental tutoring
• Highly trained and experienced university instructors
• Academic advising throughout the program

Prepare for Success

• At the end of the first year, Pathway students should be able to:
  • Communicate effectively in written and spoken English
  • Interact fully with professors and fellow students in a US classroom setting
  • Understand research, reference and citation standards for American academic papers
  • Use on-campus technology including computer hardware and software
  • Read, comprehend and critically evaluate academic texts and problems
  • Take useful and accurate notes in academic lectures

Undergraduate Pathway Programs

• Business
• Computer and Information Science
• Engineering
• General Studies
• Public Health
• Science

Graduate Pathway

The innovative Graduate Pathway Programs offered at INTO UAB are designed to develop international students’ academic knowledge and strengthen their language ability and study skills, enabling them to progress successfully to a UAB graduate degree program.

There are two Pathway options for students with the equivalent of a four-year undergraduate bachelor’s degree:

Standard Pathway (two semesters)

• Students with an equivalent four-year bachelor’s degree and
  • TOEFL iBT 65+, IELTS 5.5, PTE A 44 or completion of Academic English Level 4.

Accelerated Pathway (one semester)

ELI 071. Pronunciation/Accent Training I. 0 Hours.
This course focuses on improving your American English pronunciation and accent. The desired outcome of this course is that your speech will be more easily understood by speakers of English.

ELI 072. Pronunciation/Accent Training II. 0 Hours.
This course focuses on continuing to improve your American English pronunciation and accent through practicing previously studied skills in active conversation. The primary desired outcome of this course is that your accent will be more easily understood by speakers of English. The secondary outcome is that you will be more comfortable and fluent when speaking in English.

ELI 075. Business Listening and Speaking. 0 Hours.
This course is designed to improve students' business English skills. In particular, listening and speaking skills will be the focus of this course. Business professionals or persons presently working in the U.S. will benefit from the speaking and listening skills learned in this class. The class will also feature business-related vocabulary, idioms, and culture discussions.
ELI 076. Business Writing Skills. 3 Hours.
The following are objectives for this course: Improve understanding of the different types of business writing and appropriate use of each type (business letters, emails, memos, reports, cover letters, resumes, proposals); enhance familiarity with common business letter formats, the various parts of a business letter and the purpose of each part; create business English writing that is clear, concise and specific; learn techniques of self-editing; improve the following grammar skills: use of articles, prepositions, gerunds and infinitives, contractions, comma usage, punctuation, recognition of sentence fragments, and appropriate use of adjectives and adverbs; and improve the following language usage skills: formal vs. informal language, linking fragments, numbers in writing, and accuracy of vocabulary.

ELI 078. GRE Preparation. 0 Hours.
This advanced-level course, designed for non-native English speakers, will focus on the verbal English skills that are needed for success on the test: practice writing analytical essays, acquire strategies for mastering analogies, learn techniques to build vocabulary, review key grammar points, improve reading comprehension, and practice taking the GRE® in a computer lab.

ELI 09. ELCI 6-week Session. 24 Hours.
This course registers students as full-time or part-time students in Banner in special summer 6-week programs.

ELI 091. Common Hour. 0 Hours.
This course is designed to provide additional support to students in the Intensive English Program. This course serves as an extended orientation that will help students integrate into campus life and navigate through cultural adjustment while learning about the USA/State/Local/UAB cultures and procedures. The class is not a language learning class. The focus of the class is on knowledge. Translation help will be provided as needed.

ELI 092. Language Partners for Levels 1 and 2. 0 Hours.
This course is designed to provide additional English practice to students in the Intensive English Program. This course provides native English speaking volunteers from UAB and the community to practice in a one-on-one situation. For full-time students in the Academic English Program who are in levels 1 and 2, this is a required course. Conversational topics are chosen each week and sample questions are provided to help get conversation going. The goal is to help develop and/or enhance fluency in English.

ELI 101. Academic Writing for Non-Native English Speakers I. 3 Hours.
This course focuses on the development of various types of writing required in university courses. Becoming fluent in the organizational structure of writing in the American academic setting will be emphasized. In addition, grammar and mechanics are reviewed. Students will practice all aspects of the writing process: generating ideas, drafting, revising, and editing.

ELI 102. Academic Reading for Non-Native English Speakers II. 3 Hours.
This course expands academic reading skills and strategies, text analysis, and vocabulary skills for application in an academic environment. In addition, students will build academic vocabulary range through analyzing vocabulary contextualized in the readings. Students will expand their reading skills to extract meaning from non-fiction academic texts in English, which will feature authentic articles or excerpts.

ELI 203. Academic Listening and Speaking for Non-Native English Speakers I. 3 Hours.
This course emphasizes the development and practice of speaking and listening skills necessary for successful communication in the university environment. Specifically, this course focuses on effective strategies for listening to lectures, participating in classroom discourse, and giving presentations. In addition, students will engage in oral fluency practice and pronunciation improvement.

ELI 205. Using English Skills for Academic Success. 3 Hours.
This course will build on previous courses and will provide a venue for structured practice with all academic English language skills, including reading, writing, speaking, and listening, in an integrated format for second-semester INTO UAB undergraduate standard pathway students. Students will employ a variety of English skills in ways that will mimic what is expected in an actual undergraduate classroom format. The course will feature much feedback from the instructor to facilitate improvement; content will take into account the other courses in the pathway to maximize learning.

ELI 206. Accelerated English Skills for Academic Success. 3 Hours.
This course will provide a venue for structured practice with all academic English language skills, including reading, writing, speaking, and listening, in an integrated format for INTO UAB undergraduate accelerated pathway students. Students will employ a variety of English skills in ways that will mimic what is expected in an actual undergraduate classroom format, with the intention of accelerating transfer of English language skills to the American academic environment. The course will feature much feedback from the instructor to facilitate improvement; content will take into account the other courses in the pathway to maximize learning.

ELI 401. Academic Reading & Writing for the Graduate Student I. 3 Hours.
This two-semester, multi-skill course, designed for non-native English speaking graduate students needing English language skill improvement, will focus on reading and writing skill development, with additional outcomes in improved grammar usage and vocabulary expansion. The course will emphasize academic reading skills and strategies and text analysis, using non-fiction academic texts in English, and it will also build academic vocabulary range through analyzing vocabulary contextualized in the readings. Then, students will use readings to practice various types of writing. Becoming fluent in the organizational structure of writing in the American academic setting will be emphasized, and grammar instruction will be addressed as needed. Students will practice all aspects of the writing process: generating ideas, drafting, revising, and editing.

ELI 401L. Academic Reading and Writing I Laboratory. 0 Hours.
This course is designed to provide extra practice for topics covered in all Pathways courses for Graduate Standard Pathways students. Completion of assignments require attendance in our English and tutoring lab to pass the course and will affect your grades in ELI 401.

ELI 402. Academic Speaking & Listening for the Graduate Student I. 3 Hours.
This two-semester, multi-skill course, designed for non-native English speaking graduate students needing English language skill improvement, will focus on the development and practice of speaking and listening skills necessary for successful communication in the university environment, with additional outcomes related to pronunciation training. Specifically, this course focuses on effective strategies for listening to lectures, participating in classroom and general academic discourse, and giving presentations. In addition, the course provides a focus on pronunciation and opportunities for oral fluency practice.
