Department of Philosophy

Chair: David K Chan, PhD

The Department of Philosophy offers the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in philosophy, as well as a minor in philosophy and course offerings for non-majors and non-minors. The department also sponsors an interdisciplinary minor in Philosophy and Law, described below.

The program for majors is built around two aims. First, the major offers study of the methods, problems, and history of philosophy. Second, it exposes the student to analysis of contemporary moral issues and philosophical puzzles. Throughout the major goal is to teach students to present and analyze critically arguments, both orally and in writing. Graduates of the department have pursued such careers as teaching, law, medicine, counseling, and business.

Further information about the department and its programs may be obtained at the department’s website: www.uab.edu/philosophy.

Besides the general major, there are two other ways in which to major in philosophy at UAB:

• The Ethics Track.
• The Honors Track.

When a student first declares a major in philosophy, he or she is classified in the general path. Students remain in this path unless they request entry into the individually designed path or are successfully admitted upon request into the honors path. These requests are made of the department chair.

Students graduating in the Honors Track graduate “With Honors in Philosophy.” The Ethics Track emphasizes study in ethics, value theory, and public policy.

Minor in Philosophy & Law

Director: Matt King (Philosophy)

The Philosophy and Law minor provides interested students with a secondary specialization focusing upon the philosophical underpinnings of the political and legal systems of the United States as well as the modes of thought found in the legal system. Because legal argument frequently uses ideas found in moral thought, exposure to the theory or history of ethics is critical. The program may be of interest to students contemplating a career in law and in related careers, though it is not intended as a pre-law or legal studies program.
